Small Things Considered: Three Venues Three Views, a collective effort by The Quicksilver Mine Co., Sebastopol Center for the Arts, and A Street Gallery, continuing the popular tradition of fine art small work exhibitions in Sonoma County. Each venue has chosen to present their exhibit in their own unique curatorial style.

The Quicksilver Mine Co. will present Adam Wolpert: New Small Paintings. Drawing on twenty years of experience painting directly from nature, Wolpert's new work explores the realm of abstraction through brushwork, color, and rich active surfaces. A reception for the Artist will be held on Saturday, July 14 from 4 to 6pm.

Sebastopol Center for the Arts presents Call for Small, an all-media juried exhibition of work measuring 12 inches or less. Juried by Jill Plamann, owner & director of Hammerfriar Gallery in Healdsburg. Opening reception, Thursday, July 19, 6 to 7:30 p.m., 6780 Depot St., Sebastopol.

A Street Gallery will be presenting Sweating the Small Stuff, an exhibit of small works featuring the works of 10 Northern California artists. Curated by Andrea Speer Hibbard, the exhibit is designed to be inclusive of several mediums, including printmaking, drawing, encaustic, painting, collage, ceramic sculpture, and video. Opening reception on Saturday, July 21, 5:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Call for Small

a juried exhibition of artwork in all subjects and media that is smaller than 12 inches in any direction. The exhibition opens with a reception on Thursday, July 19, 6 pm ~ 7:30 pm, and runs through August 19, 2007. This exhibit is in conjunction with Small Things Considered: Three Venues, Three Views, a collective effort by The Quicksilver Mine Co., Sebastopol Center for the Arts, and A Street Gallery. Each venue has chosen to present their exhibit in their own unique curatorial style.

In Gallery II, concurrent with the Main Gallery exhibit, SCA will feature Oestel Landscape photographs of the American West by Gail Sands. Beginning with original digital images, Sands creates platinum/palladium prints on hand-coated watercolor paper using traditional darkroom methods. The process, which dates back to the 1880s, produces beautiful enduring black and white images of broad tonal value. A reception for the artist will be held on Thursday, July 19, 6 to 7:30 pm. For more information call Sebastopol Center for the Arts, 707-829-4797. Sebastopol Center for the Arts, 6780 Depot Street, Sebastopol, CA 95472, 707/829-4797. Gallery Hours: Monday ^ Friday, 10 am ^ 5 pm, Saturday and Sunday, 1 ^ 4 pm. Admission is free

June 14 ~ July 15 - People in Context

In the Main Gallery, Sebastopol Center for the Arts presents People in Context, a juried photography exhibition of people interacting or in conjunction with their environment, nature, animals, or other people. Many varieties of photographic processes and media are represented. In Gallery II, concurrent with the Main Gallery exhibit, SCA will feature Figures, figurative paintings by Sandra Speidel. Speidel's paintings are a combination of painterly realism and abstracted space. Her work expresses the shifting and blurring of forms as figures move through time. A reception for the artist will be held on Thursday, June 14, 6 to 7:30 pm.

For more information call Sebastopol Center for the Arts, 707-829-4797. Sebastopol Center for the Arts, 6780 Depot Street, Sebastopol, CA 95472, 707/829-4797. Gallery Hours: Monday ~ Friday, 10 am ^ 5 pm, Saturday and Sunday, 1 ^ 4 pm. Admission is free

June 21 on - "Jeffrey" - It's the early 1990's, AIDS is every gay man's nightmare and Jeffrey is so fed up with the tribulations of "safe sex" that he decides to become celibate. Then he falls in love with a man who is HIV-positive. What's a boy to do?

This is the premise of Paul Rudnick's highly successful romantic comedy, "Jeffrey," which opens Saturday, June 23, at Pegasus Theater in Monte Rio. "The play's message is that a life lived in fear is a life half lived," said director, Mark Gregory.

At Pegasus Theater "Jeffrey" will open Saturday, June 23, with the company's traditional champagne and buffet gala, then continue Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays through Saturday, July 21. Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays the show will begin at 8 a.m., except Saturday, June 30, when the curtain will go up at 7 p.m. so audience members can attend the Monte Rio Fourth of July fireworks. All Sunday matinees will begin at 5 p.m.

Tickets are $15 general admission and $12 for students and seniors. The opening gala is $35 and every Thursday is pay-what-you-can night.

For reservations call the box office at 522-9043 or visit the Web site at www.pegasustheater.com <<http://www.pegasustheater.com/>> . Gala tickets are also available at the Russian River Chamber of Commerce and Kings & Queens clothing store, both on Main Street in downtown Guerneville. The theater is located at 20347 Highway 1216 in Monte Rio.

Please note that the play includes frank sexuality and brief nudity. It is not suitable for young children.

June 18 to 23 - International Children's Theater Project. Local Student Actors Gain Experience of a Lifetime Traveling from Audition to Professional Performance in One Week With set, props, and costumes in tow, the acclaimed International Touring Project of Missoula Children's Theatre (MCT) arrives in Santa Rosa June 18th for a weeklong residency. The company's professional actor/director/educators will cast up to 50 local child actors for the stage production of "The Amazing Adventures of Robinson Crusoe." Those selected will rehearse extensively throughout the week, with the production presented on the Wells Fargo Center for the Art's main stage, Saturday, June 23rd at 2pm.

CALL TO AUDITION

On Monday, June 18th at 10am, Missoula Children's Theater will cast up to 50 roles for the stage production of "The Amazing Adventures of Robinson Crusoe." Children ages 6 to 18 are welcome. No experience is necessary, just a love of theater and a "can do" attitude. Those selected must be available June 18-23 for rehearsals and performance.

FREE WORKSHOPS

As part of their weeklong residency at the Wells Fargo Center for the Arts, the professional actor/director/educators of Missoula Children's Theatre will present the following theater workshops:

FOR CHILDREN

• Let's Make-Up

Tuesday, June 19, 2007 • 3pm • 45 minutes
For children entering grades 1-12

Without the support of visual image, actors can portray only a narrow spectrum of characters. This participatory workshop demonstrates corrective, old age, and fantasy make-up.

• The Three C's. Wednesday, June 20, 2007 • 3pm • 45 minutes . For children entering grades 3-5. This interactive workshop explores the three basics of performance: communication, creativity, and concentration.

• The Rhythm is Gonna Get You! Thursday, June 21, 2007 • 3pm • 45 minutes. For children entering grades 1-2. From simple sounds and rhythms to choreographed songs, young students explore how music can be used in theatrical performance (and just for fun).

FOR ADULT

• Theatre Games

Wednesday, June 20, 2007 • 6pm • 60 minutes. Incorporating innovative exercises and theatre games, this hands-on, fun-filled workshop is designed as a guide to tap the creativity and spontaneity of children of all ages. Bring a notepad, a pencil, and your imagination.

These workshops are free and open to the public. Advance reservations are required and space is limited. To sign up, please visit the Education page of the Wells Fargo Center for the Arts website at www.wellsfargocenterarts.com.

June 23 - The Amazing Adventures Of

Robinson Crusoe by Missoula Children's Theater at 2pm. Travel along with the shipwrecked Robinson Crusoe and his friend Wilson as they discover their island has become a popular tourist attraction! They meet a cast of characters along the way, including a singing leopard and a tribe of zany natives, and ultimately learn that differences need not stand in the way of friendships. This production is very loosely based on Daniel Defoe's classic novel.

Tickets ($10-Child, $15-Adult) are available at the Wells Fargo Center for the Arts Box Office located at 50 Mark West Springs Road, by phone at 707-546-3600, and online at www.wellsfargocenterarts.com.
